Extra-Curricular

knitTexxture - owner and creator

iTunes app / 2014-present

I've always been intrigued with the structural properties of knitting, and how certain patterns can apply to architectural details. Therefore, I decided to learn how to code and created a knitting app that would not only catalogue all of the swatches I've been interested in, but could also be a portable knitter's dictionary available any knitter with an iPhone...
